

---

UA First Year Mock Trial Program Reaps Awards

---

On February 7 and 8, the U of A undergraduate mock trial teams competed in the regional competition in Ogden, Utah. This is their first year in the program and they did exceptionally well. The following awards were received:

Outstanding New School Participating in the Regional Tournament; Second Place Overall, Team B with a 7-1 record; Fourth Place Overall, Team A with a 6-1-1 record; Second Most Outstanding Attorney in Tournament, James Cool, Team B; Outstanding Attorney, Lesli Rawles, Team A; Outstanding Witness, Jessica Flatt, Team A; Outstanding Witness, Leslie Coffman, Team B; and Most Outstanding Witness in Region, Jeremy Zarzycki, Team B.

Team B qualified for the Intercollegiate National Gold Tournament and will be competing April 3-5 in Des Moines. Team A qualified for the Intercollegiate National Silver Tournament and will be competing March 21-23 in St. Paul.

The teams are coached by Tucson attorneys Natasha Wrae and Stephanie Bond.

The UA Mock Trial Program is registered with the American Mock Trial Association and teaches college undergraduates about the application of law and familiarizes them with basic trial skills.

Congratulations and good luck to the students and coaches!

March 2003